

May Those Principles...Be Establish Forever

Lesson 6: How to Protect Our Liberties

On that day – September 17, 1787—Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, James Madison and thirty six other delegates endorsed the Constitution with their names. Together, they saw the rising sun of a bright new day for human freedoms and balanced government.

Look at the “rising” sun on the back of George Washington’s chair in the picture on the front cover.

Joseph Smith felt strongly about the principles of the Constitution. In the dedication prayer for the Kirtland Temple in 1836, the Prophet asked the Lord to preserve them.

Read and mark D&C 109:54

“Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the nations of the earth; have mercy upon the rulers of our land; may those principles, which were so honorably and nobly defended, namely, the Constitution of our land, by our fathers, be established forever.”

Ezra Taft Benson said there are four things we must do to protect and care for our divine freedoms, what are they?
